

Why $\Phi_U^A \neq \Phi_U^B$: the concurrence is shared, the local populations are not ((m, n) = (0, 2))

(a) $p_A \neq p_B$ unless $\alpha = \beta = 1.0$

(b) the phases follow the populations

(c) symmetry locus is exactly the diagonal

